TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1742.

N<sup>o</sup> 2066.

Venice, Jan. 20. N. S.

HO' the Letters we had this Week from Constantinople are very positive that Kouli Kan has begun Hostilities against the Turks, and is on the March to besiege Bagdad, and that the Kurds, a People on the Banks of the Euphrates, have revolted from the Porte; yet the very same Letters say that the Di-at the Instigation of a certain Foreign Minister, seems to succour the Swedes with Men or Money. Some from Switzerland tell us, that the three Regiments which were begun to be rais'd there for the King of Sar-

Denmark, would not be compleat for some Months; that the Troops are still on the other Side of the Tiffin, and that the Ambassador of France had declar'd, he had Order to retire if they set Foot in the Milanese.

Düsseldorf, Feb. 1. There's certain Advice from Mannheim, that next Day after the Marriage of the Palatine Princesses, the King of Prussia's Renunciation of the Duchies of Juliers and Berg for himself, the Princes his Brothers, and all the Margraves of Brandenburg, was deliver'd to the Duke of Sultzbach, in consideration of reciprocal Renunciation which the Prince of Sultzbach made of the Duchy of Cleves; so that this grand Affair is at length determin'd, at a Time when it was not expected.

Berlin, Jan. 30. The King has resolv'd to send a Minister to the Queen of Hungary, to exhort her to accept the Plan of Partition propos'd by the Court of France, the surest Means to restore Peace in the Empire; and to let her know what may be the ill Consequences of Refusal; because the King will then be oblig'd to act in Conjunction with his Allies, to obtain by Force of Arms what cannot be had by Negotiation. 'Tis for this Reason therefore that his Majesty is set out for his Army in Moravia, because if the Queen of Hungary persists in her Refusal to accept of the aforesaid Plan, the Army is then to march towards Lower Austria; but if she accepts it, the King will recal his Troops, and join his Guaranty to that of the other Princes interested in the said Plan.

Dublin, Jan. 26.

Rec'd of a Letter from Capt. Gillespie, of Col. Gough's Regiment, in the Camp near the Humber, Cumberland Harbour, the East End of Cuba, Oct. 30, 1741, to his Friend in Dublin.

We have been here since about the 20th of July. I can tell you no News, but what you will have in the Publick Accounts as soon as this; yet I will give you a Description of our Situation: The Admiral with about seven or eight Ships of the Line lies in the Harbour, which in the Opinion of all Seamen, is the finest in the World, and where all the Shipping of England might lie. He has fortified the Entrance with a fine Battery, almost finish'd. The River, which is navigable for 15 Miles up to the Camp, is call'd by the general Name, by the Admiral the Augusta; in all the Way, lie our Transports, Fireships, Bomb-ships, and a 20 Gun Ship or two. The Trees on both Side the River are ever green, for here is a perpetual Spring. The Camp is regularly laid out, and so well fortified by Art and Nature, that we are not afraid to be surpris'd. We have our Health much better here than at Jamaica. St. Jago is about 60 Miles distant by Land, but impossible to take any Land-charge, neither can we be landed nearer, and it seems the Admiral cannot go in with his Ships. It is likely we shall remain thus till we get some Reinforcement from England. We have Ships always cruizing, and they often take rich Prizes. The Bonetta Sloop arrived the other Day from England. This may be depended on, as different it is from the French Account.

Last Week Charles Coote, Esq; one of the Knights of the Shire for the County of Cavan, was stopp'd in his way near Oxmantown-Green, and robb'd of his Diamond Ring, a Gold Repeating Watch, and five Guineas.

Last Week Henry Beilingham, Esq; one of the Knights of the Shire for the County of Louth, was stopp'd in his Chair by the like Gang of Foot-pads, and robb'd of his Watch and Money.

On Saturday Night last most of the Gentlemen and Ladies who were at Aungier-street Play-house, had all their Cloaths with loaded Pistols to attend them home, to prevent our present great Street-Robberies.

We are inform'd that on Sunday Night Capt. Bre-ton was attack'd in his Chair by some Rogues on the Blind-Kay, who were secured by the Chairmen with the Assistance of some Soldiers from the Castle-Guard, and by the Lord Mayor committed to Newgate.

Likewise the same Night Major Timms was attack'd in his Room in our Barracks, by one Man who conceal'd himself under his Bed; upon which he call'd up his Servant and had him secur'd, and sent to Newgate Yesterday Morning.

Street-Robberies and House-breaking of late have been so great and many, that after Night-fall there is scarce any stirring out of Doors with Safety; to prevent which, our Dragoons on Duty here, have been oblig'd for several Nights past to patrol our Streets constantly.

The Lord Lieutenant and Council have publish'd a Proclamation with 50 l. Reward, for apprehending and convicting any Person that has committed or shall commit any Robbery in or about Dublin before the First of March next. The Reward also by Act of Parliament is 20 l. and 20 l. from the City.

The Commissioners of his Majesty's Revenue have appointed Mr. James Walsh Clerk of the Quit-Rents, in the room of Mr. Arbuckle, deceased.

S C O T L A N D.

Jolliffe Merchant in this Town, I am inform'd that the said Captain had been inform'd, that five Days before, sail'd from thence a Privateer with 14 Carriage Guns, besides Swivels, and 120 Men; that two more, of 18 Carriage Guns 4 Pounders, besides several Swivels, and 180 Men each; and two more, of 20 Carriage Guns 6 Pounders, and Swivels, with 240 Men each, were ready to put to Sea the first fair Wind; and that a Swede of 400 Tons and 14 Carriage Guns had been brought into St. Sebastian, by a Privateer of that Place; the Swedish Captain and several of his People were kill'd before they struck.

L O N D O N, February 2.

Extract of a Letter from Bristol, dated Jan. 30. 1741.

This Morning arriv'd the Catherine, Hayman, from Jamaica, which Place he left the 18th of November last, a single Ship; and if we can believe the Master, it appears that he made Cumberland Harbour, and met with the Tiger Man of War who came from thence, and inform'd him that there was not 500 Men of General Wentworth's Army living, and they very sickly, having lately buried about 1800; that Mr. Wentworth was alive, and returning to Jamaica, and that Admiral Vernon was going on a Cruise to Windward, to meet the Forces that sail'd from Cork the 8th of November last. The Tiger had in Tow a Sloop, which he took under French Colours, bound to Carthagen, with Stores, Ammunition, &c. The Oxford Man of War was to sail soon for England, and the Dunkirk Man of War was to sail the 10th of December, as Convoy to the Ships as should be then ready for England. Capt. Hayman saw a large Ship ashore on Hinego Island in the Windward Passage, which he took to be Dutch or French.

Capt. Napier, in the Eastern Branch, lately arrived from Jamaica, spoke with the Princess Carolina Hospital-ship the 13th of December, in Donna Maria Bay, who inform'd him that the Remainder of the Army under General Wentworth were gone from Cuba for Jamaica.

After the Count de Montijo's Departure from France, there was a Report in Holland, &c. that King Philip of Spain had abdicated a second time; but it met with little or no Credit.

Yesterday the Judges met at the Exchequer Chamber, Westminster, and chose their respective Circuits for the ensuing Lent Assizes, viz.
